Exhibitors may use the freight carrier of their choice when shipping to show. To receive accurate quotes from shippers, you will need your shipment details ready. This includes:

- Shipment dimensions & weight
- Number of pieces (i.e. number of pallets and/or crates)
- Pick-up location and details (i.e. require tail gate lift, residential address, loading dock, etc.)
- Delivery location (provided below)
- Billing information
- Pick-up and delivery dates (provided below)

Important

Exhibitors must notify Show Management if they will be shipping to and from the show and provide the name of the carrier you are using to receive complimentary material handling. Shipments received onsite without prior notification will be subject to material handling charges from GES.

Shipments must arrive on Thursday, January 23rd only. The facility will not accept early shipments and will not be responsible for any losses incurred should freight be delivered early; please ensure your carrier is aware of the established event timelines. Shipments will be delivered directly to your booth by GES early on set-up day.

All outbound shipments from the show must be picked up Tuesday, January 28th by 9 p.m. as the facility will not store freight overnight. Freight awaiting pickup must be securely packed with shipping labels attached and will be picked up from your booth area Tuesday night. Any freight remaining after 9 p.m. will be shipped through GES as Forced Freight at the exhibitor's expense.

Deliveries at the Show

You may arrange for courier companies to deliver packages to the show's Registration desk during show hours. Our staff will sign for any pre-paid deliveries and deliver them to your booth. If the delivery is not pre-paid, we will notify you of the courier's arrival. Be sure to include By Hand Gift Show in your addressing labels.
